FAMILY OF MISSING 64-YEAR-OLD MAKE EMOTIONAL NEW APPEAL

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS WOMAN?

STILL MISSING: Patricia Finnie

By Michael Cox

southend@yellowad.co.uk

THE FAMILY of a woman from Southend, who has been missing for more than three weeks, have made a renewed appeal to find her.

Patricia Finnie, 64, had been to see a friend in Riviera Drive in Southchurch on May 11, and left there sometime between 12.45pm and 1.15pm.

She was reported missing that evening after failing to come home, and has not been in contact with any family or friends since.

Her husband Gordon, who has been married to Patricia for 45 years, made an emotional plea to his wife during a press conference at Southend Police Station on Thursday, June 1.

He was accompanied by his son Matthew, daughter Ruth and grandson Ashley.

Gordon said: "Pat, if you are seeing this or hearing it of your own free will, I am desperately anxious to know at the very least that you are safe and well."

"I urge you to please contact your mother, me or the police so that you can return safely and we can work out any issues there may be that are troubling you."

He added: "Pat has been missing for three weeks and we really are very, very anxious for her well-being."

"Immediate family and friends all know and they are worried sick and are missing her badly."

The family members were joined by Detective Inspector Jasmine Frost, one of the officers involved in the investigation to locate Patricia.

DI Frost explained that police had made a number of enquiries to date.

She said: "Patricia's never been missing before. She does take blood pressure medication and we don't believe she has access to that at the moment which means we are concerned about her long-term health condition."

She said the case was "very unusual" for a number of reasons, adding: "Firstly, Patricia's age. Our general missing person enquiries tend to be people that are a lot younger, so her age is unusual."

"The fact she has been missing since May 11 and we've had no verifiable sightings of her is also quite unusual."

"Somebody who was a lot younger would probably have footprints in various different social media, which would give us extra lines of enquiry and, obviously, that's something Patricia doesn't have."

A CCTV image shows a woman believed to be Patricia walking past Pembroke Court and towards Belle Vue Road at about 1.45pm on the day she went missing.

Patricia does not drive, so she may be using buses and trains to get around.

She volunteers in her community, including at a befriending service for elderly people.

She has links to the Angus area of Scotland, and DI Frost revealed that officers have been working closely with Police Scotland.

Some of Patricia's favourite places to visit are Dedham, Flatford, Brighton, Birmingham and Cornwall.

Her favourite places to visit locally include Hockley Woods, Priory Park, Southchurch Hall Park and Churchill Gardens.

Patricia is 5ft 6ins, of medium build, with straight auburn-coloured hair. She also sometimes wears glasses.

She was last seen wearing a full-length quilted black coat with a hood, a pink top, navy trousers and black shoes.

Anyone who has seen her or has any information on her whereabouts is asked to call Southend police station on 101.

Volunteers scoop top accolade

VOLUNTARY groups from Rayleigh and Westcliff are to receive The Queen's Award for Voluntary Services, the highest award a voluntary group can receive in the UK.

Rayleigh Baptist Church Carers Café and Crossing Boundaries are among charities, social enterprises and voluntary groups to receive the award this year across the UK.

The award recognises the work they do in their communities.

The groups will receive the award from Lord Petre, Lord Lieutenant of Essex, later this summer.

He was thrilled that the two groups had won the award.

He said: "Volunteers at Rayleigh Baptist Church Carers Café Ministries Team offer effective support and respite to carers and the support it extends to the carers and their loved ones is exceptional. Carers can access help on the telephone as well as attend three different sessions.

"The group makes a significant contribution to improving the mental health of adult carers because the café and its satellite services combat loneliness and isolation."

Georgina Biggs, café leader, said: "Being awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service is a great encouragement to the team and gives credibility to the work we do, enabling carers to come forward with confidence."

Crossing Boundaries is made up of church and non-church members who came together following a meeting at Earls Hall Baptist Church in Westcliff. They help those in need to access statutory services.

Lord Petre said: "They provide invaluable advice and exceptional community support and continue to build strong relationships with Southend Social Care."

Police in appeal to trace driver

FAILED TO STOP: CCTV footage of the man police want to speak to POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a man suffered multiple injuries in a road collision.

The man, 35, was crossing Sutton Road, Southend, shortly after 9am on Thursday, June 1, when a dark coloured hatchback collided with him close to the Co-Op and Spar shops.

The driver of the vehicle failed to stop at the scene.

An Essex Police spokesman said the make and model of the car are unknown, and the car was travelling in the direction of the Greyhound retail park.

PC Fay Firmin, of the Chigwell Road Policing Unit, said: "An innocent person has suffered serious injuries, including a broken leg. Someone must have seen something at that point in the morning – we are urging anyone who can help to contact us.

"To fail to stop like this is extremely cowardly, and it is of paramount importance the person responsible for inflicting such injuries on the victim is caught."

The victim was taken to Southend Hospital for treatment and is in a stable condition.

Police have now released a CCTV image of a man they would like to speak to in connection with the collision.

Anyone with information or who recognises the man is asked to contact PC Firmin at Chigwell Police Station on 101.

NEWS IN BRIEF

● POLICE are appealing for information after a woman was sexually assaulted in Southend.

The woman was walking along Luker Road at around 10pm on May 27 when she sat down on a bench near the South Essex College building.

An Essex Police spokesman said: "She was approached by a man who started talking to her and touched her inappropriately."

"The victim left but was followed by the man who grabbed her and touched her inappropriately again."

"She then pushed him away and ran off."

The man has been described to police as Asian, in his late 30s to early 40s, of slim build, 5ft 10ins tall with short black hair and wearing a green and red checked shirt, black jeans and brown shoes.

Anyone with any information is asked to contact PC Matthew Stannard at Southend police station on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

● A SOUTHEND charity is to thank its volunteers with a celebration event.

Southend Association of Voluntary Services (SAVS) is holding an afternoon tea on Friday, June 9, with entertainment and outdoor games at Garon Park to say thank you to its volunteers.

The event marks Volunteers' Week, an annual celebration of the contribution of volunteers across the UK.

Emily Middlemast, volunteer centre coordinator at SAVS, said: "Our volunteers are the life blood of SAVS and this is our chance to say thank you and show them how we grateful we are for everything they do for us."

● SOUTHEND High Street has been spruced up after the installation of hanging baskets.

The makeover was carried out by Southend Business Improvement District (BID), which represents 371 businesses in the borough.

It has seen 165 hanging baskets put in place along the High Street and adjoining roads including Queens Road, Clarence Street, Clarence Road and Clifftown Road.

The baskets will remain in place until September.

BID manager Alison Dewey said: "The floral sculptures look fantastic and we hope they will prove to be a big draw in bringing more shoppers, local residents and visitors to enjoy the town centre."

Belfairs Woodland Centre to host open air concert

BELFAIRS Woodland Centre is playing host to its first open-air concert later this month.

The centre is holding the event on Saturday, June 17, and will be raising money on the day for the Essex Wildlife Trust, which runs it.

Alison Askwith, the centre's assistant manager, said that four groups will be performing – The Show Choir, The Hoy Shanty Crew, Gaudeamus chamber choir and members of Southend Symphony Orchestra.

Alison said: "The idea is local musicians playing to local people in a community facility."

The centre is also having a fundraiser towards the concert where people can buy a musical note for £5 and write a loved's one name on to be displayed on a memory tree inside the centre.

Alison said that Southend Symphony Orchestra would be dedicating their performance to the names on the tree.

Attendance to the concert, which will run from 6.30 until 9pm, is free – with the centre's café open on the day and a special stall for people to buy picnic food.

Anyone interested in buying a musical note or for more information about the concert should call the centre on 01702 477467.

Two theatre season tickets up for grabs

ENJOY a season of superb comedy and thrilling drama at the Queen's Theatre in Hornchurch with its Jump the Q season ticket.

The theatre is offering one lucky winner the chance to win a pair of Jump the Q season tickets, enabling them to see all three of its captivating productions this autumn.

You will cry with laughter at Ken Ludwig's farcical comedy, A Fox on the Fairway (August 25-September 16), a charmingly wacky adventure about love, life and a man's eternal affair with...golf.

Expect headlong humour, exuberant personalities and romantic entanglements - golfing has never been so outrageous.

The laughter continues as writer of Father Ted and The IT Crowd, Graham Linehan, brings his adaptation of the much-loved Ealing comedy, The Ladykillers, to the Queen's from October 3-21. This side-splitting production mixes comedy and criminal capers to hilarious effect.

Lovers of chilling thrillers and science fiction will not want to miss the breathtaking version of H.G.Wells' iconic novella, The Invisible Man, from October 27-November 28.

Adapted by award-winning theatre maker Clem Garrity, this suspenseful escapade is filled with music, illusion and adventure and will have you gripping the edge of your seat.

For further information and tickets to all three shows visit www.queens-theatre.co.uk or call the box office on 01708 443333.

For your chance to win a pair of tickets to see all three productions just answer the following question.

Q: Which sport is featured in A Fox on the Fairway?

A: Football
B: Rugby

C: Golf

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1686 along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YADRAMA (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, June 16. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Foul play: Some walkers are allowing their dogs to soil Two Tree Island Nature Reserve

ESSEX Wildlife Trust has appealed for people to take care of Two Tree Island Nature Reserve after claiming it was being "misused" by some dog walkers.

A trust spokesman said visitors should be allowed to enjoy walking around the island, "without abandoned dog foul tainting their day".

The spokesperson said: "Essex Wildlife Trust's Two Tree Island Nature Reserve is home to a diverse array of wildlife and nature, but is sadly being misused by a few dog walkers.

"Leaving dog foul is not only anti-social behaviour, it can lead to negative impacts on the ecology of our reserves, especially on native flora.

"Flicking dog faeces elsewhere does not remove the problem, it will only move it elsewhere, and leaving a full poo bag hanging on a branch is no benefit for anyone either.

"There needs to be a balance between protecting wildlife, and everyone, including families with young children, being able to enjoy the reserve."

The spokesman added that the trust was thankful to responsible dog owners who visit Two Tree Island on a daily basis, and asked people to clear up after their dogs to help wildlife flourish and allow the public to enjoy their visit.

PIECES OF EIGHT!: The Havens Hospice fundraising team at Victoria Shopping Centre Photos by Martin Dalton

EVENTS took place last week as schools broke up for half-term holidays.

At the Victoria Shopping Centre in Southend a treasure hunt was held to raise money for Havens Hospices.

The event, run by the Little Havens Hospice team, which supports children and young adults with life-limiting illnesses, saw families tasked with finding characters including Captain Jack Sparrow from the Pirates of the Caribbean films.

They were asked to donate to £2 to Havens, which incorporates Fair Havens and Little Havens, and got the chance to win a goody bag.

Children also took part in Forest Friday at Belfairs Woodland Centre in Leigh.

They had the opportunity to enjoy crafts, activities and games both indoors and outdoors.

The event, for children aged seven and under, required a £6 donation to the Essex Wildlife Trust, which runs Belfairs.

THE Southend Charity Cup raised £650 for the Tram Stop Shelter after 11 teams took part in the five-a-side tournament.

At the event at Play Football Southend, the winning men's team was Dad's Barmy Army and the winning ladies' side was Class on Grass, who were made up of Brentwood Town Ladies FC players.

Lisa Weir, event organiser, said: "This was the first Southend Charity Cup event and we are thrilled to have raised £650 for the Tram Stop Shelter who are not only bringing a little bit of Southend's history back to life, but are also working so hard to create accessible seaside facilities for people with disabilities."

Running to help homeless

CHALLENGE: Rochford Running Club members are preparing for the HARP24

RUNNERS are taking part in a 24-hour relay to raise money for a Southend homeless charity.

Beginner runners at Rochford Running Club are joining HARP24 at Westcliff Rugby Club on June 24-25.

They took part in a 12-week course and completed their first 5km run in April.

HARP24 sees participants run as many laps of a four-mile course through Cherry Orchard, as they can in 24 hours. They can compete as a team of up to eight, or solo, and the club has five mixed teams of eight runners and two duos.

The club has a fundraising curry night this month and runners are collecting sponsorship.

Lisa Walton, community and individual fundraiser at HARP, said: "It is fantastic to have so much support from Rochford Running Club and we are thrilled to welcome a new team of runners to HARP24 this year."

Concentrate on getting a good Brexit

IT is becoming impossible to decide where you place your X on June 8. But one thing is for sure is that all parties must deliver a Brexit.

Leaving Europe means we make our own laws, control our own finances and control our borders. A bad government cannot blame Europe and will be fully responsible for all decisions made by them.

This will make our future decision on who to vote for very easy as it did before Europe had control. Leaving Europe will give back full control to our Government, whoever they are, so the only decision we need to make is which party will deliver the best deal on Brexit.

Brexit is the big issue and we want the best deal. Other issues such as defence, NHS, education, immigration, employment, etc. are grey areas as you cannot believe most of what the parties say.

Whichever party gets in we will be leaving Europe so this is why Brexit is the only issue we need to consider and which party will get the best deal.

If still not sure who to vote for there are secondary issues to consider. The Labour Party promises big improvements to the NHS and confused figures for policing. They also promise to weaken our national defences and reading between the lines they will keep the borders open raising the terrorist risk.

Almost all terrorist attacks are carried out by visitors from other countries or their offspring. This is not a racist remark as I believe that the vast majority of immigrants and their families are good people and should be accepted and respected as our equals.

The Tories seem to want to hit the pensioners without realising that affects every person in the UK that survives to pension age, whatever that may be in the future.

At present we can blame Europe for many of our Government's failures so we need to remove this excuse once and for all so we are able to judge their actions as sole responsible representatives of the people.

At future elections we can base our votes on existing policies, but right now we need to support the winning party for the sake of a good deal.

Let's get out of Europe with a good deal for all concerned.
Keith Little Benfleet

Shocking attitude to homeless

WHAT a disgraceful and inhuman attitude was displayed by Fred Nicholson (Southend YA, June 2) regarding homeless people in Southend.

Does he really think these people choose to be homeless and live on the streets? Does he not consider what misfortunes may have caused their predicament?

There are many reasons why someone can end up in this position – failed relationships, poor physical health, mental health problems, bereavement, financial problems.

Why does he assume all homeless people are drunks and drug addicts? Does he not realise that alcoholism is an illness not a choice of lifestyle? What happened to caring, humanity and compassion?

I am surprised he suggested the BHS Building on High Street as a place to accommodate the homeless.

With his attitude I would have thought he would have advocated for Auschwitz to be reopened where he would probably fit in nicely.

K. Knight Basildon

Realism is not being defeatist

WHEN replying to a letter it's always a good idea to have actually read it first and not one of your own invention that says what you want it to say.

To be crystal clear, I am against England (not Britain, please) bowing down to anyone.

The left bows down to Europe, the right to America. To hell with both.

Stiff upper lips? Stiff back-bones? That's not patriotism, it's arthritis. Sclerosis of the imagination.

Realism is not defeatism. To imagine that the world loves us and is lining up to do deals is wishful thinking.

The only think likely to be done is us as the rest of the world buys us up.

Is this what we've come to – a nation of spivs?

In 1939, England was isolated, divided, ill-informed and ill-prepared – and Europe was dominated by Germany and Russia. No change there then.

It's amusing to hear the intolerant whining about intolerance. Their charges rebound on themselves, and just as we can't tell the difference between democracy and majority rule, so we can't tell a sellers' from a buyers' market.

Germany makes cars. We like to buy German cars. Who has whom in their pocket?

We can go elsewhere. Not if we want German cars we can't. They can easily go elsewhere.

Why do we imagine we can play hard ball and Europe can't or has no right to? This is foolish pride.

As for the 60 per cent figure for goods and services imported from Europe, that's the one bandied about by press and politicians, take it up with them. If I'm wrong, so are they – and they're the ones in charge.

K. Knight owes me a big apology.

Paul Divine Westcliff

Reward to catch these cruel thugs

I WAS totally and utterly appalled to read the article in the Yellow Advertiser (June 2) about the two kittens found with "horrific" injuries in Gunners Park.

What sort of low life scum (you really can't dignify them by calling them human beings) would inflict injuries like this on poor defenceless kittens? It really beggars belief.

I would like to see the same treatment inflicted on them and see how they like it.

I have rescued many cats in my life and I absolutely deplore senseless and mindless cruelty to animals of any description.

I am so incensed about this that I am prepared to put my money where my mouth is and offer a reward of £200 for information leading to the prosecution of whoever did this. We really need to make people realise that there is no need for cruelty to animals when they can take them to the RSPCA or animal charities for re-homing.

Mrs Carol Shindler Shoeburyness

Police are out of touch locally

MANY people criticise the police for not doing their jobs properly, but as we all know local police numbers have been reduced to such an extent that they are now practically non-existent.

Local police meetings have been reduced to the point that they have virtually finished.

That connection with local police has been lost and the police are now completely out of touch with residents and our streets. In recent months we have seen an dramatic increase in burglaries in our area.

I believe that if we don't invest more money in our police force, crime and lawlessness will eventually become rampant, even in our relatively low crime area of Hockley.

Alan James Hockley

Excellent service

"I visited Scott as I had broken my dentures. He repaired them there and then at a very reasonable price. I took the opportunity to discuss my options with him as my dentures had never been comfortable. After advice with no pressure from Scott I decided to have new dentures. Best decision ever. I now have a great comfortable set. I would highly recommend Scott to anyone. A very professional service throughout."

Convert your attic for anything with Loftman

CONVERTING your loft for storage is one of the easiest conversions you can do – and one of the cheapest.

Loft conversions are great storage solutions for all of your unwanted and even wanted goods, or a great place to keep items out of sight for a few months or even years.

If you are planning a family, you may need the extra storage room to put your baby clothes in, or you may want to put some of your current possessions into the loft to clear some space.

Using loft space as storage is also a popular option if you have a commercial business downstairs and need more room to store work belongings, giving your business the space to expand without the need to move.

Loftman's luxury storage rooms can include the strengthening of the loft joists, flooring, lighting, access, roof insulation, stud walls, windows and ready to skim plasterboard throughout. It can also install access doors into the eaves – offering valuable storage space on both sides of the room.

Depending on what you want to store in your loft will determine how much work needs to be done to create the extra loft space.

Luxury storage rooms are surprisingly affordable at just a fraction of the cost of a standard loft conversion.

For example, a loft conversion on an average sized two bedroom terrace house costs just £3,999, including supply and fitting. To book a free, no-obligation survey, call now on 07973 672227.

Trishade Blinds come to The Blinding Concern

NEW Trishade Blinds are now available at The Blinding Concern along with a range of other revolutionary blind systems.

The Trishade Blinds, which are partly Venetian and partly roller blinds, are available in manual or electric versions making them ideal for any place in your home.

Alongside these, The Blinding Concern stocks Perfect Fit pleated blinds, a revolutionary British blind system that offers a simple and reliable method of installing blinds on virtually any type of double-glazed window or door. The Perfect Fit frame slots neatly into place and is held by a series of unique brackets, which clip into your existing double-glazed window or door.

Because the new-style blind is attached to the window or door it provides shade, privacy and ventilation, and as it is made to measure in the company's Basildon factory, you are sure of a "perfect fit".

You can now install the system in your whole conservatory, in any colour of your choice, for the fantastic price of just £999 plus VAT.

Other new arrivals at The Blinding Concern include curved tracks for bay windows, while other stock includes Roller Blinds and Vision Blinds, both of which are now also available in manual or electric options.

For a no-pressure quotation call The Blinding Concern on 0800 026 2445, between 9.30am and 7pm, or visit at Alpha Garden Centre, Unit 18, 238 London Road, Wickford, between 9.30am and 3pm, from Monday to Friday. You can also find out more at its Facebook page.

GRAN DEBUT FOR MATT

By Liz Wade

features@yellowad.co.uk

BARKING-BORN Matt Barkley makes his professional UK stage debut in Gangsta Granny at Cliffs Pavilion next month.

Birmingham Stage Company, the acclaimed producers of Horrible Histories and George's Marvellous Medicine, will bring the touring production of David Walliams's popular children's book to the Southend theatre from Thursday to Sunday, July 6-9.

Matt completed his studies at Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts in London and graduated with a BA in acting.

Prior to that, Matt, who lives in Braintree, studied screen acting at the New York Film Academy, where he worked and expanded his knowledge of the industry.

His favourite role at drama school was Zhen in Grandfathers by Irish playwright Rory Mullarkey, a physically demanding play which followed eight teenage soldiers at boot camp.

He is appearing in the ensemble alongside the cabbage-crunching, criminal mastermind, Gangsta Granny, and is also the male understudy in the production.

It is Friday night and Ben knows that means only one thing – staying with

There will be cabbage soup, cabbage pie and cabbage cake and Ben knows one thing for sure – it is going to be so boring.

But what he does not know is that Granny has a secret and Friday nights are about to get more exciting than he could ever imagine, as he embarks on the adventure of a lifetime with his very own Gangsta Granny.

As Gangsta Granny says: "All you can do in this life is follow your dreams. Otherwise you're just wasting your time."

Williams, one of the judges on Britain's Got Talent TV show and creator of comedy series Little Britain and Big School is now the best-selling author for children in the country. He began his publishing career at Harper Collins in 2008 with debut novel, The Boy in the Dress, followed by Mr Stink and Billionaire Boy.

In 2011, he published Gangsta Granny, which went straight to number one in the children's book charts. It was shortlisted for both The Red House Children's Book Award and the Roald Dahl Funny Prize.

A TV version was broadcast on BBC1 at Christmas in 2013.

The all-star cast included Walliams, as well as Julia McKenzie, Miranda Hart, Rob Brydon, Joanna Lumley and Robbie Williams.

Gangsta Granny has been translated into 30 languages.

Walliams said before the tour: "I am over the moon that Gangsta Granny is coming to the stage.

"It's the most popular of all my books and I am sure this production by the brilliant Birmingham Stage Company will delight not just children but their parents and of course grandparents."

After seeing the opening night in Birmingham, he added: "What a fantastic show. And so much better than the book."

Gilly Tompkins plays Gangsta Granny, with Ashley Cousins as Ben, Rachel Stanley is mum, Ben Martin, dad, Devesh Kishore is Raj, Liz Garland plays the Matron/Queen, and Richard James is the doctor. Sophie Gibbs joins Matt in the ensemble and is also the female understudy.

Gangsta Granny is a must for everyone from five to 105.

THE MUMMY (15, 110 mins)

ALMOST a decade after the release of the hammy fantasy adventure The Mummy: Tomb Of The Dragon Emperor, director Alex Kurtzman attempts to reboot the horror franchise with this action-packed thriller set in the present day, which positions Tom Cruise at the centre of the special effects-laden destruction. Cruise plays tomb raider Nick Morton, who travels to Egypt with plucky archaeologist Jenny Halsey (Annabelle Wallis) to retrieve an ancient artefact.

In the process, Nick accidentally unearths the resting place of Princess Ahmanet (Sofia Boutella), who was buried alive thousands of years ago after she murdered King Menephtre (Selva Rasalingam) in order to seize the throne.

Nick and a team of military specialists transport Ahmanet's sarcophagus back to the UK. En route, the airplane is brought down by a flock of crows. While Jenny manages to escape the fireball by parachute, Nick is trapped inside.

Miraculously, he survives the inferno without a scratch and enigmatic scientist Dr Henry Jekyll (Russell Crowe) reveals that Nick has been chosen by a resurrected Ahmanet to help her destroy the modern world and refashion it as her new dominion.

Traditional Indian cuisine at its best

FINE traditional Indian cuisine and fantastic entertainment is on offer at the popular Blue Chutney, at 31 The Broadway, Wickford.

The restaurant serves an extensive selection of fine traditional Indian cuisine, thanks to award-winning chef, Kamrul Islam.

As well as freshly preparing a range of Indian dishes Kamrul and his team serve specialities to suit a range of tastes and mouth-watering cuisine such as Bombay sizzling Tava, Zinga Delight, Sylhti Bahar and Shaslik Chicken Masala.

Blue Chutney is not only the place to be to eat delicious food, but also the venue to enjoy tribute nights and entertainment throughout the year. Entertainment and tribute nights, which include a five-star buffet meal with 12 different dishes to choose from, as well as a papadum and pickle tray and starter served at your table, include The Rod Stewart Experience on Thursday, June 15, which costs £22.95 per person.

Throughout the year diners can party at the Blue Chutney thanks to its Drinks Promotion on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Enjoy a starter, main course, side dish, rice or naan bread from the menu (king prawn extra £3.30) and as much drink as you want for one hour 45 minutes. You must book your table in advance to enjoy this offer, which costs £21.95 per person on Wednesdays and £25.95 on Fridays. Drinks include Cobra and Carling draught beer, wine by the glass, vodka, gin, whisky and brandy, as well as Baileys, Malibu, Archers and soft drinks (excludes wines by the bottle and champagne, terms and conditions apply).

Blue Chutney, which offers a full takeaway service with free local delivery, is open Monday to Sunday from noon to 2pm, from 5.30-10.30pm from Monday to Thursday; 5.30-11.30pm on Friday and Saturday; and from 5-10.30pm on Sunday.

For more about Blue Chutney call 01268 763866, email a i l bluechutney@hotmail.com, or visit www.blue-chutney.com.

 FIRST VISIT SINCE NEW OWNERSHIP

What a lovely surprise, lovely old fashioned country pub atmosphere. Very pleasant and obliging staff and the food was really good. Clear plates all round! Will definitely be back. Wish them all every success.

 GREAT PUB

Hi my local is the castle pub and I have seen many changes over the years plus I served in the very same pub many moon ago. In the late 50s and early 60s the kraft twin Ronnie and reggae frequented the castle to inviting Barbara Windsor along to as she was Ronnie's partner at the time. Great nights great people atmosphere is fantastic. wonderful food on the menu. you just couldn't ask for anything better. Yours sincerely Sandra bonner of Barrow hall rd ...

 WHAT A WONDERFUL TRANSFORMATION !!!

My partner and I first visited the castle a couple of years ago, as it had been recommended to us.....we arrived outside a very ramshackled pub which was drab and very tired inside. That is certainly not the case now what a transformation !! New proprietors June and Ken have worked so hard in making the Castle a warm and inviting pub which is comfortable to sit with a drink or to enjoy a fresh home cooked meal. My partner and myself both had a starter and my main dish of cod and chips was delicious and huge!!!!.....this is definitely going to become a place that we visit on a regular basis as there was so much choice on the menu, and the staff were lovely.....nothing was too much trouble. Locals must be so thrilled that June, Ken and their family have moved in, not only do they provide themed evenings, live music, quiz nights and much more, they have restored this pub back to the beautiful old building that it was. Well done, keep up the good work and I hope that you all get the support that you deserve.

 GREAT FOOD AND SERVICE

We had a family meal and the children who are big eaters had half price meals from the main menu. The cook was even able to make fresh meatballs that were not spicy for my youngest child. The adult size had delicious kebabs on a skewer which we all really freshly made with homemade chips and a tasty salad.

We cater for all functions offering A la Carte or Buffet Menu

Home of the week

Bishopsteignton, Shoeburyness

THIS attractive end-of-terrace three bedroom house is situated on the popular Bishopsteignton development within a short distance of Thorpe Bay railway station, shops and the seafront.

The accommodation comprises a cloakroom/WC, modern fitted kitchen and good size living room/diner with views over the south-facing rear garden.

To the first floor there are three bedrooms and a modern three-piece bathroom suite.

The property also benefits from having gas central heating, double glazing and a garage to the rear with off-road parking.

The garden is accessed from the living room/diner or through a rear access gate and has been laid to lawn with a brick-built retaining wall.

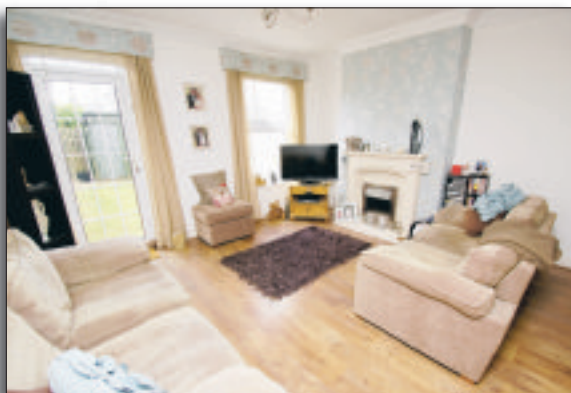

An internal viewing is highly recommended.

Ask The Agent...

In Each Issue You'll Discover Simple Tips to Help You Sell Your Home for More...

"I've found a property to buy, but which type of survey is best for me?"

If your purchase requires a mortgage, the lender will arrange a basic valuation of the property. This is only for their benefit and just confirms the property exists as collateral. As the buyer, you should have your own survey, to check for problems.

The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) offers three levels of survey for residential property:

The Condition Report - If you're buying a conventional property built from common building materials and in reasonable condition, this report offers clear 'traffic light' ratings of the condition of the building; lists any problems that require attention; provides a summary of the risks to the condition of the building; flags guarantees, planning and building control issues.

The HomeBuyer Report - If you require more detail this report includes: An extensive inspection, opinion on 'Market Value', advice on repairs and maintenance, insurance reinstatement figure, problems that may affect value, issues to investigate to prevent serious damage or dangerous conditions, legal issues to address before completing your conveyancing, and information on the location, local environment, etc.

The Building Survey - Formerly known as a full structural survey, is the most detailed survey, and is appropriate if you are buying a large, old or run-down property. It includes: A thorough inspection and detailed report, a description of visible defects and potential problems caused by hidden flaws, a summary of repair options and dangers of leaving things as they are, details of serious risks and dangerous conditions.

If you'd like help in determining an accurate initial marketing price for your property, please ask Roger or Michelle at RV Hall & Co on 01702 470044.

Fit your child's seat correctly

By Stewart Smith

NEW research claims that more than eight in 10 drivers are putting children's safety at risk by failing to fit child car seats correctly.

The investigation, carried out in conjunction with Leicestershire Police, Child Seat Safety Ltd and What Car? magazine, found that only 15 per cent of the child car seats assessed were fitted correctly and were appropriate to the children being carried in them.

Of 85 seats analysed at random, in 51 cars only 31 were fitted correctly and, when the suitability and fitting of the child were taken into account, that figure dropped to just 13.

Three-quarters of the incorrectly fitted seats inspected were able to be rectified on site but four seats – five per cent of the sample – were condemned, with two being removed immediately and replaced before onward travel was permitted.

While car seats with Isofix attachments were all correctly installed, those that used the seatbelt as a restraint caused the most problems.

The most common issue was with the harness or seatbelt restraining the seat being too loose, twisted or incorrectly positioned.

Up to the age of 12 years, when it is assumed that children will be able to use the seatbelts fitted in a car, the driver is responsible for ensuring that an appropriate child restraint is fitted and that it is being used correctly.

Steve Huntingford, What Car? editor, said: "It's clear that the overwhelming majority of drivers are aware of their responsibilities when carrying a child in the car.

SAFETY FIRST: Many motorists are not fitting child seats correctly

"But, unless the child car seats have Isofix attachments, there is confusion over how to correctly fit them and ensure your child's safety.

"At best, drivers could land themselves with a £100 fixed penalty notice, but at worst they are significantly increasing the risk of death or serious injury to their children.

"It's a form of Russian roulette that drivers are playing," he added.

Child Seat Safety co-director, Julie Dagnall, added: "The evidence from this study was that the overwhelming majority of drivers were exposing the children in their cars to significantly increased risk.

"It is important to raise awareness of this issue and to offer parents and other drivers carrying children the correct information and guidance."

Few of those surveyed had sought professional guidance in selecting their child seats, and fewer still had retained contact with the retailers or manufacturers of their child seats.

Mr Huntingford added: "Parents and carers often go to great lengths to ensure the safety of children in many aspects of daily life, and it is shocking that the proportion of unsafe child restraints in their cars was so high."

DEPARTURES A BLOW TO BLUES SQUAD

Football

Football round-up by Brian Jeeves

SOUTHEND United have been dealt a blow with the news that central defender Adam Thompson and midfielder Will Atkinson have parted company with the Roots Hall club to join Bury and Mansfield Town respectively.

Atkinson, 24, was arguably Southend's most improved player during the last campaign. He was recently selected as a part of Northern Ireland's squad for their forthcoming matches with New Zealand and Azerbaijan, but joins Bury on a three-year deal after making 121 appearances for the Blues.

Speaking to the Bury official website about his signing, manager Lee Clark said: "I have seen Adam operate at close quarters this season and he was very impressive, and it's that impressive form which has led to his call-up to the Northern Ireland squad.

"Adam is a fantastic signing for us. I am thrilled to have signed a young, talented, international player who is at the age where we can still help him develop and he can help us improve."

Former Hull City and Bradford City man Atkinson linked up with Southend in 2103, making 171 appearances and was a pivotal part of the Blues side that won promotion to League One via the play-offs in 2015.

Speaking to the Mansfield Town official website, the 28-year-old said: "I spoke to the manager, Steve Evans, and he really sold it to me.

"He was determined to get me in, he made me feel really wanted – that was a big part – and obviously I've spoken to people and got advice and they said the club was going places and I want to be a part of that."

2 – Division 1 campaign.

The Hammers youngsters were promoted to the top-flight following a dramatic 2-1 play-off victory over their Newcastle United counterparts at St James' Park at the start of the month.

Now academy director Terry Westley will be looking to ensure his side get the best possible preparation ahead of the new season.

The Hammers get under way with a visit to the Hive on Saturday, July 15 to face Sky Bet League two side Barnet (3pm), before travelling to the Weston Homes Community Stadium to take on Colchester United three days later on July 18 (7.45pm).

West Ham take on National League side, Dagenham & Redbridge, at Victoria Road on Saturday, July 22 (3pm), before travelling to Slovakia to take on Super Liga sides Spartak Trnava and FC ViOn Zlaté Moravce.

Speaking to the Hammers official website, Westley said: "This group of players is at a level where they need a pre-season which is akin to that of a Championship club.

"For that reason, we have organised matches against EFL clubs, as well as a trip to Slovakia where we will take on two of the country's top sides.

"The likes of Dan Kemp, who made his England debut on Monday evening, Martin Samuelsen, George Dobson, Toni Martinez, Marcus Browne and Josh Cullen, if they are with us, need to be tested, so we have put together a pre-season schedule that is fit for purpose."

● Colchester United striker Chris Porter has parted company with the club to link up with fellow Sky Bet League Two outfit Crewe Alexandra.

Porter scored 16 times for the U's last season, and made a total of 91 appearances for Colchester, finding the net 30 times during his time in North Essex.

The 33-year-old will join the Greysty Road side at the conclusion of his current contract on July 1.

Meanwhile, Colchester has announced that West Ham United will be sending a team to the Weston Homes Community Stadium as part of their pre-season preparations. The Hammers visit the U's on Tuesday, July 18 (7.45pm).

● Dagenham & Redbridge have bolstered their ranks with the triple signing of Morgan Ferrier, Daniel Sparkes and Ben Nunn

Striker Ferrier, 22, netted 11 times for Boreham Wood during the last campaign. He links up with the Daggers subject to a fee being agreed by a tribunal.

Previously, the frontman had spells with Arsenal, Nottingham Forest, West Bromwich Albion and Crystal Palace before moving into non-league football with Bishop's Stortford and Hemel Hempstead Town.

Sparkes joins the Daggers from fellow National League outfit Torquay United. The midfielder made 36 appearances for the Gulls during the last campaign, finding the net six times.

Previously he enjoyed spells with Histon and Braintree Town, helping the latter to the National League play-offs.

This signing comes hot on the heels of defender Ben Nunn linking up with the Victoria Road Club from Boreham Wood.

Like Ferrier, Nunn arrives from Boreham Wood on a two-year deal, having made 38 appearances for Boreham Wood during the last campaign.

The 27-year-old had spells with Boston United, Rushden & Diamonds, Cambridge City, Bishop's Stortford and Chelmsford City.

During his five seasons at Boreham Wood, Nunn made 151 appearances and scored three times.

Meanwhile, the Victoria Road side has confirmed that midfielder Scott Heard has left the club after cancelling his contract by mutual consent.

Non-league round-up

Club pre-season comings and goings

By Brian Jeeves

NATIONAL League South side Chelmsford City have bolstered their ranks with the triple signings of Lee Barnard, Paul Rogers and Michael West ahead of the new campaign.

Striker Barnard joins the Clarets from Braintree Town where the 32-year-old striker made 35 appearances, finding the net on three occasions.

Formerly with Tottenham Hotspur, Leyton Orient, Southend United, Southampton, Bournemouth and Crawley Town, the Romford-born front-man is delighted to join the Clarets and link up with boss Rod Stringer.

He said: "I know about the club, its ambition, and it's something that I want to be a part of."

Since progressing through the youth system at Arsenal, defender Rogers, 27, has played for numerous clubs at non-league level including Billericay Town, St Neots Town, Farnborough and Bishop's Stortford.

He said: "There was no other club I wanted to join."

Midfielder West enjoyed Football League experience with Crewe Alexandra as well as spells with Hereford United, Ebbsfleet United and Whitehawk.

National league South side East Thurrock United have re-signed Max Cornhill after the combative midfielder left Chelmsford City.

Cornhill returns to Rookery Hill having also represented Dartford and Concord Rangers.

Meanwhile, the Rocks have announced that the following players have agreed to sign new deals ahead of the 2017/18 season: Lukas Lidakevicius, Ryan Sammons, Sammy Knott, Simon Peddie, Marvin Ekpiteta, George Allen, Lee Burns, Ben Marlow, James White, Max Cornhill, Reece Harris, Lewis Smith, Brad Warner, Tom Wraight, Kye Ruel, Harry Honesty and Sam Higgins.

Local rivals Canvey Island and Concord Rangers are to face each other in an eagerly anticipated pre-season friendly at Park Lane on Tuesday, July 25 (7.45pm).

Rangers have announced the following pre-season fixtures: Saturday, July 8, Colchester United Under-21s, (Colchester Utd Training Ground), 3pm. Saturday, July 15, Millwall Under-23s, (H), 3pm. Tuesday, July 18, Tonbridge Angels, (A), 7.45pm and Saturday, July 22, Margate FC, (H), 3pm

Ryman League Premier Division outfit Billericay Town have announced that Leyton Orient will visit New Lodge as part of the club's pre-season schedule.

The O's are at Billericay on Saturday, July 29 (3pm), with many of the hosts' new signings expected to feature.

Having named former Orient manager Ian Hendon as Director of Football, Town quickly bolstered their ranks with the signings of Robbie Evans, Ricky Modeste, Louie Theophanous, Josh Urquhart, Dan Waldren and Dan Walker. Billericay have another glamour fixture with a West Ham United XI, at New Lodge on Tuesday, August 8 (7.45pm).

Essex Senior League side Ilford have published their pre-season schedule ahead of the 2017/18 campaign.

Manager Allan Fenn hopes his side will be among the title challengers following a sixth place finish last season.

The Foxes warm-up schedule is: Tuesday, July 4, Enfield Borough, (venue TBA), 8pm. Saturday, July 8, May & Baker, (A), 2pm. Tuesday, July 11, Chigwell Rivers (Peter May Sports Centre), 8.30pm. Saturday, July 15, Peckham Town, (A), 3pm. Tuesday, July 18, Romford, (Ford Sports & Social Club), 7.30pm. Saturday, July 22, Felixstowe & Walton, (A), 3pm and Wednesday, July 26, Hoddesdon Town, (H), 7.45pm.

Redbridge, have appointed Joey May as new first team joint-manager alongside Ricky Eaton.

May previously played for Aveley, Tilbury, Canvey Island and most recently AFC Hornchurch.

He links up with the Oaks Stadium Club ahead of the new campaign and replaces Dave Ross.

Redbridge have announced their pre-season programme.

The full schedule is as follows: Saturday, July 8, Tilbury, (Robert Clack 3G), (3.45pm). Saturday, July 15, Broxbourne Borough, venue TBC. Saturday, July 22, Newbury Forest, (H), 3pm and Tuesday, July 25, Canning Town, (H), 7.45pm.

Vandals strike at Millfield

TWO charity matches and all of Aveley and Grays' pre-season home games have been cancelled following damage to the Millfield ground by vandals.

In a statement on the Millers official website, club secretary Craig Johnson called on the local community for help in routing out those responsible.

What's causing your pain in the BUTT? Sciatica

Jon Handley-Collins, Doctor of Chiropractic

Sciatica "Si-at-ika" is a group of symptoms involving pain in the buttock and back of the leg, only usually on one side of the body. In addition to pain there may be any combination of pins & needles, numbness, tingling and muscle weakness in the affected leg or foot. The true meaning of Sciatica is often misunderstood. The term is merely a group of symptoms and not a diagnosis. This means that if you have been told you have Sciatica, you still have not been given a diagnosis, as the diagnosis is being told what is causing your Sciatica symptoms. Having a correct diagnosis is important because the treatment options for the different causes are very different.

The main causes of Sciatica are:

- Spinal disc herniation: Some people call this a "slipped disc" but what actually happens is the fluid like contents of your spinal disc causes the outer layers of the disc to bulge out. If this bulge is on to a spinal nerve in your lower back, it can cause Sciatica.
- Spinal Stenosis: This is where the hole for your spinal nerve to exit from the spinal canal closes up and puts pressure on the affected nerve, causing Sciatica.
- Piriformis Syndrome: The piriformis is a muscle in your buttock. The Sciatic nerve passes very closely to this muscle and in rare cases passes through the muscle. When this muscle gets tight it can irritate the Sciatic nerve, which can cause Sciatica.

To find out whether Chiropractic can help, a Chiropractor will first conduct a case history and physical exam to narrow a patient's symptoms down to find out what's causing them. This includes neurological, orthopaedic and Chiropractic examinations.

Then there is a return visit to explain our findings, to tell you what has been found and what needs to be done to sort it out. At the Optimum Spine Centre, (based at 1212 London Road, Leigh on Sea) we are conducting these initial consultations, including a report of findings for just £15 (usually £90).

Give the Centre a call today on 01702 710084.

Chiropractic can help!

We are often asked, "What is the best way of finding out whether Chiropractic can help with my problem?"
The answer is with a complete consultation and physical examination.

Only a vote for Theresa May's Conservatives Will ensure that we take back control

For nearly 20 years I have campaigned for the United Kingdom to leave the European Union and restore full sovereignty to our Parliament. That focus led me to join UKIP in which I played a significant role in developing its local election strategy which resulted in over 50 councillors being elected across Essex.

I have always known James Duddridge was one of the leading MPs supporting the case for Brexit and I was delighted when we were able to work together on the Vote Leave campaign last year. James was very involved in the national campaign but he also gave me his full support in my role as regional director for Vote Leave. The campaign was also strongly supported by Sir David Amess.

Article 50 has been triggered and the Prime Minister needs our full support so she has a strong hand to deliver the best outcome for our economy and our country. Only Theresa May can deliver on Brexit's 4 core goals:- taking back control of our borders, our legal system, our finances and our ability to trade freely.

We need the ability to control who enters or re-enters the UK. We need to prosecute laws that protect our citizens without foreign courts interfering and we need to be strong against the internal enemies that threaten our way of life. This is not the time to have a weak and inclusive approach to terrorists or a coalition of chaos dominated by wanting to hold re runs of the referendums on the EU and UK.

Only a Conservative vote will deliver a strong government and a positive Brexit. It would be mad to waste a vote on UKIP or on independents with unknown national views. I am giving our Conservative candidates my full support and have re-joined the party that will deliver both Brexit and a positive strategy for Southend.
